

I would like NJ to follow the Federal guidelines & not be too strict on Do Not Call regulation when it comes to calling for business with the help of Friends & families referral system that my business has. The record keeping requirement for phone calls made could be following the FCC guidelines instead of the current regulation.